Dear Fellow Everything is Early Gardeners,

Well this is a good news bad news story. Good news first: we had tons of wonderful plants for the plant sale and our money was about the same as last year. In spite of the crazy gardening summer we had a beautiful flower show. Now for the bad news: our tea did not make much and the baskets ticket sales were terrible. There were just not enough people. We really have to rethink our annual event. Everyone worked very hard and we were so disappointed.

We really really need someone to come forward and be president next year. Rick has done an amazing job, but five years is way too long. The new president will have a hard working supportive board of directors and hey, you will get to work with me.

September is our fall plant sale, so pot up all your great stuff.

November is a great month: we have Christmas demos and Mike Slade will talk to us about taking pictures for the photo contest. This is also our tart night; now that does not mean that you dress like a tart, no you have to bake tarts.

See you soon.
